

The Challenge of Change

Matthew 14:22-33; Mark 10:17-22; Luke 19:1-9

The Challenge of Change

Matthew 14:22-33; Mark 10:17-22; Luke 19:1-9

Change is _____.

Leaving our comfort zones requires _____ in God's control.

We must face our _____ (Matt 14:26).

We must replace the _____ with the _____.

We must _____ on Jesus (Matt 14:29-30).

The rich young ruler's comfort zone was his _____ status
(Mark 10:19-22).

Zacchaeus' comfort zone was his _____ (Luke 19:5-8).

We must be willing to make _____.

Peter was able to _____ and _____.

Nicodemus' comfort zone was his _____ (John 3, 7, 19).

Being known as Jesus' _____ became more important than anything they had to _____.

Being dissatisfied with the _____ and desiring a preferred _____ motivates us to leave our comfort zones.

Staying in our comfort zone keeps us from _____ all that God wants.

_____ lets me see God's _____.

The comfort zone is a _____ place to live.

The only way to grow is to _____.

_____ keeps me trapped.

Change always involves _____.

Next week: Pastor Stephen will bring the message, entitled "Of Shepherds and Sheep," looking at numerous New Testament passages.