

Knowing Christ Jesus— Entrusted With an Amazing King

We Can Know Our King

<sup>7</sup> But whatever gain I had, I counted as loss for the sake of Christ. <sup>8</sup> Indeed, I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ <sup>9</sup> and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith — <sup>10</sup> that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, <sup>11</sup> that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead.

Philippians 3:7-11

We Can Know Our King

There is _____ in knowing Christ Jesus.

- 1) To know Christ is to know _____.
Philippians 3:7-8a

- 2) To know Christ is to know his _____.
Philippians 3:8b-9

- 3) To know Christ is to know his _____ and _____.
Philippians 3:10-11

- 4) To know Christ is to know the power of his _____.
Philippians 3:10-11

So What?

As you approach Holy Week, do you intimately know Christ Jesus as your Lord? What do you need to count as loss? How can you more intentionally take hold of the surpassing greatness of knowing Christ?

---

Next week we will consider what it means to worship our King—even if there are those around us who do not!
